Jet loses staff, planes to rivals

Mumbai: Rival airlines are targeting various assets of grounded Jet Airways, including airport slots, highly-trained employees and aircraft, making the lenders' task of reviving the debt-laden carrier by finding a suitable buyer an Herculean task. Two low-cost airlines are aggressively hiring employees of the financially-crippled airline at much lower salaries and inducting aircraft to fill the vacuum created by Jet Airways, which was a significant player in the international and domestic markets till recently. Even full-service carriers such as Vistara and Air India, which are saddled with more debt than Jet, are taking the opportunity to fill the void and enhance their market
